SYNOPSIS OF SCENERY

Time: A.D. 170 Place: Rome

PRELUDE—An invisible angel announces the Sacred performance.

EPISODE 1—THE ATRIUM OF THE PALACE OF THE VALERII

The protestations at the rumour that Cecilia is a Christian are quelled by Tiburtio, and preparations continue for her marriage when Valerian enters and sings of her beauty. Cecilia arrives with friends and bridesmaids and is married in the pagan rite.

Later, repelled by Valerian's earthly words, she takes refuge at the foot of the altar to the Lares and entreats God to keep pure her body and soul. An angel appears in answer and Valerian draws back.

EPISODE 2—A CHAPEL IN THE CATACOMBS OF THE PRETESTATO

An old blind woman tells how in answer to her prayers, she dreamt that her son's terrible sufferings were relieved, and the Christians kneel and pray. Cecilia and Valerian appear and the latter reluctantly enters with his spouse and is antagonised when she prays with the Christians.

Bishop Urban arrives and announces the conversion of Paul in Damascus streets. The blind woman, entranced at the miracle of her son, sees with the assembly a vision of St. Paul. Dropping to his knees, Valerian is converted and baptized. An angel appears bearing garlands for the bride and groom.

EPISODE 3—SOME TIME LATER. Both Valerian and his brother have given their lives in the name of Christ.

Scene 1—A HALL IN THE VALERIAN PALACE, CONVERTED INTO A TRIBUNAL

Cecilia, sustained by Valerian's voice which she alone hears, repulses the efforts of Amachio to secure her allegiance to the pagan gods. Enraged by the lictors' cries, he condemns her to suffocation in the boiling calidarium. Courageously, she steps towards it and, despite the entreaties of her maidens, crosses the threshold.

Scene 2—THE HYPOCAUST

A shower of fresh dewy rose-petals from on high mitigate the heat from the flames and Cecilia sings in wondering joy. Amachio is consumed with rage and a soldier springs forward and strikes Cecilia to the ground with his sword. The falling petals cease as her enemies leave. Priests and Christians enter with Bishop Urban, to the joy of the dying Saint, who expires in an ecstasy. The calidarium is burst asunder and the sweet, immortal song of the Saint is heard as she is seen in the midst of cohorts of angels ablaze with golden light.
